

Welcome

Country Guesthouse Schönegg offers quality accommodation in the heart of the Murrumbateman wine district. Located just 30 minutes from Canberra and 3 hours from Sydney, Schönegg is the perfect location for a romantic getaway, some serious pampering or the ultimate food and wine indulgence.

Schönegg (which means 'Pretty Corner' in Swiss German) promises country tranquility, culinary bliss and modern elegance. We have a passion for generous hospitality and fine food and we would love to share this with you.

Stay in and enjoy a luxurious spa, relax on your private deck or curl up with a good book. Close by are quiet country roads, tennis, golf and more than a dozen cool-climate wineries. Historic Yass and the tourist attractions of Canberra are nearby.

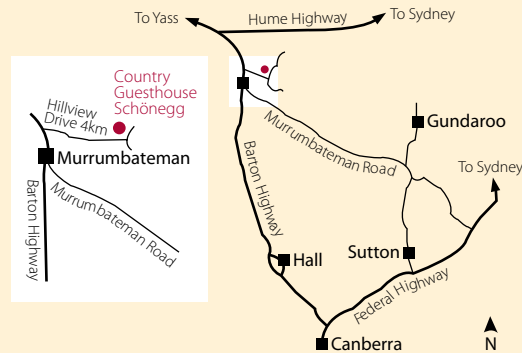

Since opening in 2003 Schönegg has established a reputation for excellence, receiving multiple tourism awards and industry accreditation.

Guesthouse Accommodation

4 ½ star accommodation in 6 ensuite guestrooms – 3 double spa rooms, a fully accessible room and 2 pet-friendly rooms.

Enjoy a complimentary glass of quality local wine and canapés on arrival and an indulgent breakfast in the morning (included in the tariff) comprising a sumptuous continental buffet and à la carte cooked breakfast.

All rooms feature private decks, plush bath robes, CD stereos and tea and coffee making facilities. Our Premium Rooms are air-conditioned and feature king-sized beds and flat panel TV/DVD players.

The spacious air-conditioned guest lounge offers shady terraces in summer and a cosy slow-combustion fire for when it's cold outside.

Schonegg Dining

Enjoy innovative dishes produced fresh with flair by your hosts, Evelyn and Richard, both talented chefs.

Our seasonal menus feature the finest produce from our gardens and the region. Our wine list offers a selection of cool-climate wines from the Murrumbateman region.

An à la carte dinner menu is available Wednesday – Sunday, bookings are required.
